Notes

This is where you will find general information about your instructor, such as their contact information.

Remember - as long as you can access the internet, you can access this information.

We have covered a lot of material under Course Information. Let's take a minute to reinforce what we've learned by taking a simple quiz. This will also give you another chance to familiarize yourself with some of the testing features of Blackboard.

Click on the Assignments button to the left and then Unit Two Assignments.
