

OCC Library

You can access the OCC Library and all the databases that the college has subscribed to from within Educator. You do not have to login again into the OCC Library website. Your educator login will authenticate you into the OCC Library website.

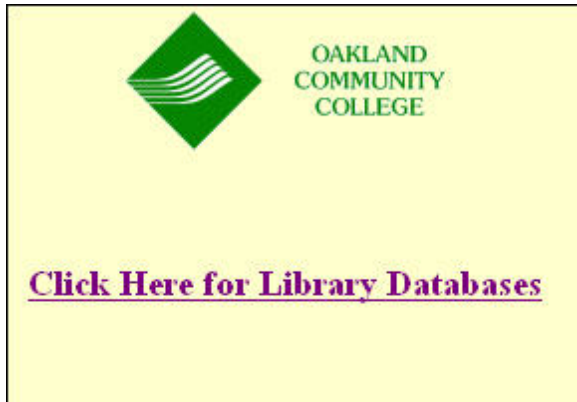

---

To access the OCC Library in Educator -

- Click on the 'OCC Library Databases' sublink in your left navigation panel.

- This will take you to a new window outside of Educator with a link to access the library website.

- To return to the course, you can minimize your library website window.
