

Speakeasy 2009

Submission Deadline: March 15, 2009

Each group of work submitted to Speakeasy must include the form below. Up to five works in any combination of the following can be submitted: short stories (up to 1200 words), poems, creative nonfiction essays (up to 1200 words), academic essays (up to 750 words), microfiction (up to 250 words), original drawings, and original black & white photographs. The editor will select up to three works per writer/artist for publication.

OCC students currently enrolled at the Auburn Hills campus, as well as Auburn Hills faculty and staff, are eligible to submit.

All writers and artists whose work is accepted for publication will be invited to participate in a reading and showing of their work to be held at 5.30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 28, 2009 in G240 at the Auburn Hills campus.

Submissions:

- We will accept paper or electronic versions of your work for initial review.
- All accepted work in final form, however, must be submitted in electronic format.
- All text must be titled and typed.
- Short fiction and essays should be double spaced.
- Poetry should be single spaced.
- Image files should be saved with the file name in this format: LASTNAME.IMAGETITLE. We can use *.gif or *.jpeg images only. If your image is selected, we will request a high-resolution image.

For paper submissions and CDs:

Send, with the form below completed and attached, by campus mail to:

Trish Harris, Speakeasy Editor
Department of English
Rm. F110, Auburn Hills Campus

For online submissions:

Please attach the files of your submitted work to an email addressed to OCCLITOUTLOUD@gmail.com. Use YOURLASTNAME.Speakeasy as your subject line. When the editor receives your material, they will send an online submission form for you to complete and submit.
