Be the one.

He's the one whose memory I want to honor.

On April 13, 2006, Diane Waits' son, Army Specialist Andrew Waits was killed in combat in Iraq. Diane knew that his dream had always been to become a police officer. She also knew she could be the one who honors that dream, and his memory, by donating to the OCC Foundation. By funding scholarships for other worthy students who share Andrew's dream, Diane has ensured that the memory of her son lives on ... and that, in a very real sense, Andrew continues to serve his community and his country.

For more information on how you can be the one who makes a difference in a student's life, contact the OCC Foundation today.
