5. Other Business:
  - A. Chair Bob Zemke reported on the March 28, 2018, OCC Scholarship Luncheon, at the Orchard Ridge Campus. It was well attended by 208 people with 120 donors plus guest. Bob will contact Larry Molloy to bring copies of the book he wrote for purchase on the U.P. to his lecture in April.
  - B. Sally Hanna said that Diamond Jack's Boats have three boats available depending on the size of the group. The cruise is $15 per person and that takes you down the Detroit River and she will check into the availability for our group of roughly 20 people. We would take the bus down and eat lunch in Detroit.

Sally said that the Edsel Ford House offers a Christmas Tour Tuesday, Nov. 27, 2018, and would cost $25 per person which would include bus rental. We would eat lunch nearby at your own expense.

The board discussed attending the Stafford Festival in the fall but decided that we would plan that activity next year due to the availability of dates offered for groups.
  - C. Dan Jenuwine wanted to mention that he would like to invite our group to a fund raiser for the OCC Foundation called the Garden Party at Meadow Brook for a $150 donation which is tax deductible except for $25 for the wine tasting.
