He's the one whose memory I want to honor.

On April 13, 2006, Diane Waits' son, Army Specialist Andrew Waits was killed in combat in Iraq. Diane knew that his dream had always been to become a police officer. She also knew she could be the one who honors that dream, and his memory, by donating to the OCC Foundation. By funding scholarships for other worthy students who share Andrew's dream, Diane has ensured that the memory of her son lives on ... and that, in a very real sense, Andrew continues to serve his community and his country.

For more information on how you can be the one who makes a difference in a student's life, contact the OCC Foundation today.

Oakland Community College Foundation Giving Guide

Existing Funds

There are established funds at OCC that were created by a person, family or group to help students in particular programs, or to help students in general. Your additional gifts of any size can help keep these funds active and growing, making it possible for more awards to be made.

Newly Named Scholarship Options

- With a gift of $1,000 or more you can create a named one-year (annual) scholarship. You will choose what will be covered by the award (such as tuition or books), and select criteria to be used in awarding recipients.
- With gifts of $10,000 or more you have the above choices, however, the scholarship will be endowed, meaning it will continue in perpetuity. Scholarship awards will be made each academic year based on the investment income earned in the previous calendar year.

Every dollar you give to OCC Foundation is tax-deductible and 100% of your gift goes directly to the program or fund you want to support. You may choose to support one or several programs, and may choose to do so in one payment, or with several payments over time.

The OCC Foundation accepts:
